Rental Terms

Dallas Fort Worth and surrounding Texas communities

These terms apply to the completed schedule and approved attachments. Contact GNS at support@gnsrental.com for changes, questions or incident reporting.

1 Agreement and reservation This agreement takes effect when both parties sign. Items are reserved only after GNS confirms the booking and receives the required reservation payment by its due date. Website quote requests and estimates do not reserve inventory. Complete all charges and payment deadlines before signing.

2 Market and included services This agreement is for Dallas Fort Worth and surrounding Texas communities. Inventory is allocated to this market and event date; an item offered in another GNS market is not automatically included. Florals, styling, installation and accessories are included only when expressly listed in the rental schedule.

3 Delivery collection and access GNS and Customer will follow the agreed handoff and return windows. Customer must arrange venue permission, access, loading space and an available onsite contact, and disclose access restrictions before booking. Additional trips or waiting charges require an agreed rate or written approval. Customer pickup and setup by GNS are available only when included in the agreed services.

4 Inspection and condition GNS will provide reasonably clean items fit for their agreed use. The parties should check quantities and condition at handoff and note shortages or damage. Customer should promptly report a problem and preserve relevant photos. Signing a delivery receipt does not waive rights concerning a concealed defect or a problem caused by GNS.

5 Safe use and care Customer must use items only as intended, follow supplied instructions and protect them from theft, misuse and unsuitable weather. Do not alter items, overload furniture or attach materials that damage finishes. Heat, flame, heaters, tents and electrical items require the instructions, venue approvals and competent operation applicable to those items. GNS may stop unsafe setup or use.

6 Return loss damage and cleaning Customer is responsible for reasonable care while items are in Customer custody, including customer transport and guest handling, until return or agreed collection handoff. Customer is not charged for ordinary wear, an existing defect or damage caused by GNS. GNS will document a claim and charge reasonable supported repair costs or the agreed replacement value for an item that cannot reasonably be repaired, without double recovery. Late return and special cleaning charges follow page 4.

7 Performance substitutions and disruptions GNS needs Customer approval for material substitutions. If an item or service cannot be provided, the parties may agree to an alternative; otherwise GNS refunds amounts paid for the unprovided portion, subject to applicable rights. For severe weather, venue closure or other circumstances outside either party's reasonable control, discuss safe performance or rescheduling and confirm changes in writing. There is no automatic forfeiture of all payments.

8 Responsibility and resolving concerns Each party remains responsible for its own breach, negligence and legal obligations. This agreement does not waive rights or remedies that applicable law makes nonwaivable. Customer should notify GNS in writing of a concern so the parties can seek a practical resolution. No mandatory arbitration, personal injury release or blanket indemnity is created by this agreement.

Cancellation and Signatures

Dallas Fort Worth and surrounding Texas communities

Complete the cancellation schedule, additional charges and any special terms before both parties sign. A signed copy and the identified attachments should be supplied to each party.

Changes and cancellation

Request changes or cancellation in writing to support@gnsrental.com. Changes require GNS written confirmation and remain subject to availability. Any cancellation amount must be agreed below, reasonable and permitted by applicable law; it is not an automatic forfeiture of every payment.

Governing law. Texas law governs, subject to mandatory applicable law. Any proceeding must be brought in a court with lawful jurisdiction.

Acceptance and signatures. This agreement and the identified attachments contain the agreed rental terms. Later changes require both parties' written acceptance. Each signer confirms authority to sign, has reviewed all four pages and attachments, and intends the signature to bind that party. The parties may sign electronically by mutual agreement and retain a printable copy; a typed name is a signature only when entered with the signer's intent to sign.
